

§600 ABSENCE OF POLICY

601.1. Policy If on a particular matter there is not an express policy or procedure which applies to the matter, the question is to be decided by taking into account policies and procedures enacted in similar matters, the teachings of the Church, Universal Law and customs of the local church. (Can. 19)

Procedures

If after having made the decision, the person believes there may be broader consequences or implications to said decision, he/she may make a recommendation for a change in policy through the policy development process in §100 of Book I.
